

Establishing a Divine-Mind Connection

By Rev. Lisa Bousson

From birth we are taught to use our minds to create our world. We are taught to solve problems, to analyze, and to deduct the most appropriate methods and reasons for any problem before us. When someone is tuned into their Divine-Mind, or intuitive self, they tune into their higher source instead of relying upon their conscious mind. This is very contrary to everything that we've been taught.

Instead of going along with society, you can turn to your inner wisdom of the Divine-Mind within each of you. You must have a sincere desire to learn to live a mystical self-directed life, and maintaining an easy-going attitude allows one to use intuitive self-direction more easily.

By enlisting the habit of placing all your questions of life into the hands of the Divine Mind you will establish the connection for higher self-direction when needed. Your choices or decisions can be much more easily made. Daily affirmations help in this instance. When you affirm something over and over again, as if your goal has already manifested you are stating in the conscious and subconscious mind that you have brought your intention to reality.

Tuning in to your higher mind, which is your divine mind, and affirming direction from a higher source on a daily basis, you open the doors so spirit can help to direct you at anytime, anywhere, and under any condition.

“Much more surprising things can happen to anyone who, when a disagreeable or discouraged thought comes into his mind, just has the sense to remember in time and push it out by putting in an agreeable, determinedly courageous one. Two things cannot be in one place.”

~ Frances Hodgson Burnett
